CHAPTER I

INTRODUCTION

1.1 Background

The development of information technology continues to expand rapidly and evenly across the globe. The use of digital platforms especially in the information field is already well used for both dissemination and absorption of information. To keep up with that development, information owners go about many methods of attracting interest and attention from digital readers. One method used in marketing information is to employ graphic design as an interested reader.

The International Office of the Darmajaya Institute of Informatics and Business (IIB) has various programs that provide opportunities for students to gain learning experiences at 26 universities in 9 selected countries. One of them is Student Mobility, this program provides an opportunity to expand knowledge by experiencing a new learning system for one semester.

The university that is being studied in this report is Nantong Vocational University (NTVU) China. NTVU is one of the best campuses in Jiangsu Province that is competent in the field of computers, and one of its courses is image visualization which teaches about making graphic information as a medium for delivering information.

The dissemination of the student mobility program carried out by the International Office IIB Darmajaya is currently running very well, but it is felt that it can be further improved by disseminating digital information by utilizing graphic design displays.

Through the student mobility program to Nantong Vocational University organized by the International Office IIB Darmajaya, the author can identify and be able to map out learning about the introduction of graphic design, so that it can produce informative, attractive, and easy-to-understand graphic displays to support the marketing of the student mobility program to IIB Darmajaya students.

Based on the above background, the author chose the title of the community service work practice report, namely: "Graphic Design As A Medium Delivering Digital Information Study At Nantong Vocational University".

CONCLUTION

3.1 Conclution

From the descriptions and explanations in previous chapters related to making graphic designs as a medium for disseminating digital information about Student Mobility using Adobe Photoshop, the authors conclude that:

- 1. The use of graphic design as a medium for disseminating information can attract interest and increase the enthusiasm of IIB Darmajaya students in participating in study abroad programs.
- 2. In making the graphic design as a medium for delivering digital information using Adobe Photoshop, it requires the placement of information and image elements in accordance with the design used, so the readers have no difficulty in understanding the information conveyed.

3.2 Suggestions

In its application, graphic designs containing student mobility information can be applied to social media, press releases, learning portals, and other media that are often accessed by IIB Darmajaya students to support the effective use of the graphics as a medium for delivering information.

3.3 Recommendation

To support harmony and uniformity, it would be better if the graphic design to be made has a standardization in terms of size, font type, use of color on the background and the effects of the graphics created. This represents the consistency of the designer of the IIB Darmajaya institution.

Mahasiswa IIB Darmajaya Kuliah di Tiongkok : Dosennya Peduli dan Toleransi kepada Muslim

Tiongkok – Ketiga mahasiswa Institut Informatika dan Bisnis (IIB) Darmajaya menempuh studi selama enam bulan di Nantong Vocational University (NTVU) Tiongkok.

Hafidh Faresi Ifanka, Daffa Iqbal Rahmatullah, dan Dinda Alfikha Putri mengikuti program student mobility ke negeri Tirai Bambu. Kuliah di luar negeri juga menjadi pengalaman pertama ketiganya.

Daffa –biasa dia disapa – mengatakan terdapat beberapa perbedaan di Tiongkok mulai dari cuaca, lingkungan, dan pergaulan. "Cuaca disini 4 musim dan saat ini musim gugur jadi suhu udaranya kadang rendah," ucap dia diamini kedua rekannya Hafidh dan Dinda Rabu, Dari sisi lingkungan, lanjut dia, kebersihan di Tiongkok merupakan nomor satu. "Untuk di perkotaan nomor satu (kebersihan) tetapi tidak dengan tempat tinggal mereka kurang perhatian. Orang-orang disini juga tidak terlalu peduli dengan penduduk yang lain," ujarnya.

Mahasiswa Diploma III Manajemen Informatika ini juga sangat senang dapat bergaul dengan mahasiswa/i asing lainnya. "Dosennya di sini semua pada care, mereka sifatnya protect dan pedulinya tinggi sama mahasiswa asing. Responnya sangat cepat," kata dia. Hal senada juga dikatakan Hafidh yang merasa senang bisa berkuliah di Tiongkok. "Bersyukur karena teman-teman Tiongkok peduli sama kami. Dosennya juga lebih fast respon," tuturnya. Ketiganya juga selama di Tiongkok telah berkeliling ke beberapa tempat bersejarah. "Baru terakhir ini kami ke bagian South Street Nantong, Jiangsu. Ke desa pelosok kota bersama teman dari Tiongkok dan diceritakan sejarah desa itu," kata Daffa diamini Dinda dan Hafidh.

Daffa dan Hafidh juga merasakan pengalaman beribadah di masjid dengan minoritas muslim ketika Salat Jumat. Mengingat Agama Islam di sini minoritas dan kebanyakan juga dari luar negara yang datang salat. Selama salat, toleransi di sini ditunjukkan dengan adanya polisi yang menjaga di gerbang," ucap Daffa.

Menurutnya, makanan di Tiongkok memiliki ciri khas dari aromanya. "Kami membeli makanan dengan teman dari Tiongkok untuk menghindari makanan yang tidak halal. Untuk harga di sini murah, porsinya besar Jadi mengenyangkan," imbuhnya.

Sementara, Wakil Rektor IV IIB Darmajaya, Prof. Dr. Ir. RA Bustomi Rosadi, M.S., mengatakan ketiga mahasiswa menjalani program student mobility untuk menambah wawasan internasional. "Kampus memberikan peluang sebesar-besarnya kepada mahasiswa untuk mendapatkan pengalaman studi di luar negeri dengan student exchange dan program lainnya," ucapnya.

Dia berharap dengan berkuliah di Tiongkok dapat menambah keilmuannya secara akademik maupun nonakademik. "Saat ini Tiongkok merupakan negara yang menjadi pusat perhatian dunia baik dari teknologi maupun ekonominya. Jadi mahasiswa harus memanfaatkannya untuk mendapatkan banyak pengetahuan di NTVU dan menularkan kepada mahasiswa/i IIB Darmajaya lainnya," tutupnya. (**)
