

ABSTRACT

THE EFFECT OF EDUCATION LEVEL, TRAINING AND WORK LOAD TO TEACHER PERFORMANCE OF SMA YADIKA NATAR

By:

Enjelia Girsang

The aim of this research determines that there is the effect of education level, training and workload to teacher performance of SMA Yadika of Natar. The type of this research uses the quantitative research. The sample taking technique uses non probability sample technique with the purposive method. The sample in this research is 32 respondents. The data analysis method uses multiple linear regression. The data is constructed by the SPSS 23 software. The independent variables in this research are education level (X1), training (X2) and workload (X3). The dependent variable in this research is teacher performance (Y). The result of this research shows that partially education level effects to teacher performance significantly. Partially training effects to teacher performance significantly. Partially workload effects to teacher performance significantly. Simultaneously, all independent variables effect to teacher performance.

Key Words : Education Level, Training, Workload, Teacher Performance.

